Utilizing Lego Based Play Therapy to Address ADHD and Other Disorders with Children and Adults

Presenter: Carmen K. Jimenez, MSW, LCSW, LISW-CP, LCAS-A, SAP, RPT-S

Ms. Jimenez is a South Carolina native and a licensed independent social worker and registered play therapy supervisor. She has a background in child protective services along with providing direct clinical care to children, adolescents and adults. Ms. Jimenez served on the North Carolina Board of Directors for Association for Play Therapy and NASW. She is a currently serving on the SC Board of Directors. She is practicing in Columbia, South Carolina as a psychotherapist and play therapist.

Training Overview: This 3 hour contact workshop will provide counselors, therapists, clinical social workers, as well as new play therapists and graduate students in the field an overview of Play Therapy methods. The presenter will briefly review the DSM5 criteria for Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder including play therapy methods. Participants will leave having an understanding of ADHD and Lego Play Therapy methods to utilize in their practice setting.
Learning Objectives: At the conclusion of the training, participants will be able to:

1. Become familiar with DSM 5 criteria for Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder.
2. Examine the Lego Play Therapy method in the clinical setting.
3. Explore methods on how to utilize Lego Play Therapy within various treatment settings.

Yoga + Play: Exploring the Benefits of Using Yoga in Conjunction with Play Therapy Techniques to Help Children Build Self-confidence, Increase Self-control and Relax

Presenter: Lecole J. Sander, MSW, LISW-CP

Lecole Sanders is a licensed independent social worker—clinical practice in her own private practice, Ms. Sanders Family Counseling, LLC in Florence, SC. Ms. Sanders works with a variety of children and family issues in her practice and frequently uses play therapy techniques in her work. Two areas of clinical interest for Ms. Sanders are children on the Autism Spectrum, and children/adolescents with concerns related to eating/body image. She regularly works with children and their families who are experiencing difficulty related to these particular issues. Additionally, Ms. Sanders is a TF-CBT trained therapist, and works with children who have experienced a variety of traumatic events. She is currently working on becoming credentialed as a Registered Play Therapist.

Training Overview: This contact 3 hour experiential workshop will explore the benefits of using yoga, in conjunction with play therapy techniques, as a way to help children become more self-aware, improve self-control, practice mindfulness, learn new relaxation skills, and build self-confidence. Playful breathing techniques, child-friendly yoga postures, yoga games, books, and guided imageries will be explored. Ways to incorporate kid friendly yoga in individual therapy, family therapy, group therapy and the classroom will be explored. The scientific rational for using yoga to help treat mental/behavioral health issues will be discussed. Examination of videos, games, and books, along with the actual practice of kid friendly yoga sessions will help participants gain the knowledge and confidence to incorporate yoga into their play therapy practice.

This is an interactive workshop so dress comfortably and bring a yoga mat or towel.

Learning Objectives: At the conclusion of the training, participants will be able to:

1. Identify the therapeutic value and benefits of yoga used in conjunction with play therapy techniques in the playroom and/or classroom.

2. Identify beneficial, playful yoga techniques in conjunction with play therapy using games, books, videos, etc. appropriate for children with mental/behavioral health needs in the playroom and classroom.

3. Demonstrate and practice actual yoga postures, play therapy games, relaxation, and breathing techniques used in kid friendly yoga.

4. Incorporate yoga in conjunction with play therapy into everyday practice with children and teens in the playroom and/or classroom as appropriate.
NOTE: The afternoon is an interactive workshop so dress comfortably and bring a yoga mat or towel.
